"SQUEEZER" PLAYING CARDS,

Best quality, of the strongest material, and being highly finished on both sides, they slip readily when handled.

An important feature is that by reference to the "INDICATORS" in the corners all chance of making a mistake in the hand is avoided, as such "Indicators" show the Suit and Size. This allows of the hand being compressed into a very small space, and hence the name "SQUEEZERS." The "Indicators" are in addition to the ordinary pipes made to run both ways.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 27, 1881.

THE London Money Market keeps firm, the market rate of discount being the same as the Bank, while four months bills are quoted at 3⅜ per cent., ⅛ higher. The Stock Markets, however, are still unchanged, Consols at 98⅜, French Rentes at 120½, and Enfaced Rupee Paper at 81¼ for Fours and 88¼ for Fours-and-a-half.

In General Produce Cocoanut-oil is unchanged. Mid. Plantation Ceylon Coffee 1s. per cwt. higher. Linseed is dull, and slightly easier for Calcutta to arrive. Wheat also comes dull, and 6d. per quarter lower.

The Manchester Piece-goods Market remains quiet, and private telegrams say with an easier tendency as regards price.

Cotton in Liverpool yesterday closed dull ; sales 8,000 bales, of which 500 were Surats. Prices, as quoted by Reuter, show no change, except Mid.-Uplands, which are 1-16d. higher, owing, doubtless, to an enquiry to cover this month's deliveries ; otherwise the market is weak, for Surats to arrive more especially, and at the nominal rates current there is a loss of something like Rs. 5 per candy on to-day's Bombay quotations. In New York yesterday there was no change, ready Mid.-Uplands being still 11 13-16 cents., April shipment 12·02 cents. per lb. The receipts of Cotton at the U. S. ports to date are as follows :—

	1881	1880	1879
Wednesday's receipts	16,000	16,000	25,000
Five days' do.	74,000	84,000	116,000
Total receipts since 1st Sept. ...	3,898,000	3,712,000	3,202,000

At the weekly biddings for Council Drafts on India in London yesterday, of the 40 lacs offered Rs. 34,30,000 were allotted on Calcutta, Rs. 2,70,000 on Madras, and Rs. 3,00,000 on Bombay at an average of 1s. 7½d., tenders at that rate receiving 28½ per cent. of the amounts applied for. As compared with the previous biddings, this shows a decline of ¼d. per rupee, but it is quite as high as was generally anticipated here yesterday. Bar Silver, however, has receded 1-16d., to 51¾d. per oz., equivalent to 1 7 11-16d., per rupee, and shipments to the extent of £60,000 are advised by yesterday's P. and O. steamer from Southampton for this port.

EXCHANGE.—Notwithstanding the fact of Councils having gone at about the level expected, we opened this morning with a decidedly weak feeling at a decline of 1-32d., and for a time a fall of a full 1-16d. was quoted. The reduction, however, brought out sellers of Private Paper, in which a fair business was done, and Calcutta at the same time coming steadier, we close with a recovery of 1-32d. from the lowest point, say :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7⅞d.	per Rs.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 15-32d.	,,
Do. 3 months' sight ..	1s. 7 8d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 7 13-16d.	,,
Documents, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 7 27-32d.	,,
Francs, 3 ,, ,,	2f. 09c.	,,

On Calcutta the rate for demand drafts is 1-16 per cent. premium.

GOVERNMENT PAPER to-day has been decidedly firmer ; a fair business has passed, and values have recovered to Rs. 100 to ⅛ for Fours and Rs. 108⅛ for fours-and-a-half. Stronger news from Calcutta seems to be the chief cause of the improvement, but possibly our late decline was also a shade too fast.

The SHARE MARKET is quiet but steady. In Banks, Land, and Press Companies values are all unmoved, but Spining and Weaving mill shares are the turn firmer. Bhownuggur mills and Dhurrumsey's have advanced Rs. 15, Empress Rs. 2½, Maneckjee Petit Rs. 10, Great Eastern Rs. 5, and Orientals Rs 7½ per share.

COTTON.—Weaker advices from Liverpool have increased the depression to-day ; a considerable amount of pressure to sell has been apparent, and a decline of Rs. 2 per candy has been established all round. We now quote :—

Good Hingunghaut, Ready	Rs.	227 per candy.
,, Oomra, February	,,	215 ,,
F. G. F. ,, ,, ...	,,	206 ,,
G. F. ,, ,, ...	,,	195 ,,
Good Broach, March	,,	220 ,,
,, Dhollera, April	,,	215 ,,

SEEDS and WHEAT continue as previously quoted.

FREIGHTS are quiet to a degree, but so far as rates are concerned, are not quotably changed. For Liverpool we quote weight at 32s. 6d., measurement at 35s. The s. s. Arago has been fixed at the latter figure, with concessions. For Marseilles there are re-lets in the market at 41s. 3d., and for Trieste and Venice 46s. 3d. is quoted, both payable here. Sailing tonnage is firm, and the ship County of Anglesea is report ed to have been taken up under home charterat 43s. 9d. for U. K. or Continent.

PIECE-GOODS are quiet at unaltered values. The off-take from the bazaar is about the same and although sellers are firm-buyers show no eagerness.

COALS are dull and difficult of sale for early shipment, but for distant delivery there are still good buyers.

STEAMER REPORT.

GALLE, JAN. 24, 12A. M.

Mail-steamer Poonah, from Calcutta, arrived.

A MEETING of the Committee of the Bombay Military Relief Fund was held at the Secretariat yesterday afternoon under the presidency of H. E. Sir James Fergusson. The minutes of the last meeting having been read, the Hon. Mr. Ashburner stated that up to the present time 335 claims had been made on the part of Europeans and 511 on the part of natives. The fund now amounted to Rs. 1,80,000. One of the questions to be considered was this,—there was a fund in London for the relief of the families of European soldiers killed in the Afghan war and these families might be relieved from that fund. The sum collected by the Bombay committee was so small that he was afraid, if its benefits were extended to Europeans, it would practically prove of little use to any one. As to the question of extending the benefits of the fund to native followers, there would be great difficulty in doing this, as no correct list of followers of the army was obtainable. Another point to be decided was, whether they should amalgamate their fund with Madras and Bengal funds, but as he considered little advantage was to be gained by adopting such a course, he proposed that the Bombay fund should be confined to their own people. In reply to General Warre, the Hon. Mr. Ashburner said that, on making a calculation, he came to the conclusion that, although the Bengal fund was much larger than that of Bombay, the amalgamation of the two would prove of no advantage to the latter, as the number of Bengal claimants would be much greater than those of Bombay, and besides the distribution of relief would be delayed. After some discussion, as to whether the Bombay fund should or should not be amalgamated with the Bengal fund, it was decided that there should be no amalgamation. The distribution of relief to Europeans was then considered. It was proposed by Mr. Rogay, and seconded by Mr. Justice Melvill, that relief from the Bombay Military Relief Fund be extended to the families of the non-commissioned officers and men, European and native, of the "Bombay army." It was also decided, on the motion of Mr. Justice West, that the committee be empowered to distribute immediately Rs. 5,000 amongst those claimants whose right to aid has been ascertained. Mr. Rogay moved, and it was carried, that relief should be distributed to disabled camp-followers and to such families as could be identified as those of followers who had died on service. We will publish a full report of the meeting to-morrow.

WE hear a telegram has been received at Belgaum stating that the missing girl, Kate Bain, has been found in Portuguese territory, and is now at Goa.

GENERAL J. L. VAUGHAN, who has been an interested spectator of the chief events in the Afghan war, including the famous march of General Robert's force from Kabul to Kandahar, has arrived in Bombay.

As regards the state of the weather and prospects of the crops in the Bombay Presidency, we are told in the last official report, for the week ended the 21st instant, that "Prospects continue good; prices slightly falling."

THE Council of His Excellency the Governor of Bombay for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations will meet in the Council Hall, Secretariat, on Friday, the 4th February, at midday.

COLONEL M. W. WILLOUGHBY is gazetted Commissary-General of the Bombay Army, and Lieutenant-Colonel A. Phelps, Deputy Commissary General, from the date of retirement from the service of Colonel F. P. Mignon.

THE Bombay Government Gazette published yesterday contains the official confirmation of the order, dated 16th August, 1880, appointing Lieutenant-Colonel A. G. Daubeny, 2-7th Foot, to command the 2nd Infantry Brigade, as a temporary measure, with the local rank of Brigadier-General, vice Brigadier General H. F. Brooke, killed in action." Poor Colonel Daubeny died several months since!

THE Delhi Gazette announces another rebellion "Our Rajputana correspondent writes us that the Minas have broken out, looted the village of Kotra, in Mairwarra, and killed a man, and are carrying off cattle and goats on all sides. The whole of the Ajmere commission, together with 200 men of the Ajmere and Mairwarra Battalion, have gone to hunt them down—a difficult task."

THE Madras Mail understands that the Government of India have finally decided to abolish the Press Commissionership, and to provide Mr Roper Lethbridge, the incumbent of that office, with an appointment in the Secretariat of equivalent pecuniary value. No official announcement to this effect has been made, and we fancy the wish has been "father to the thought" and the only ground for the Mail's statement.

THE British iron ship Bannockburn, of Greenock, 1,675 tons register—the Indian Daily News of the 25th instant states—is on fire near the mouth of the Chittagong river. The vessel had 12,525 bales of jute on board, valued at Rs. 2,13,000. The fire appears to have broken out on the port side underneath the fore-castle deck, and has since spread rapidly over the fore-part of the ship. She has been beached, but the fire was still burning when the above report left Chittagong.

THE Lady Superior at the Convent at Simla died very lately of pleurisy. No notice has yet been taken of her meritorious services, the Pioneer says, "but Madame Gonzaga was really a most excellent person, full of zeal for the large and valuable institution over which she presided, and we are glad to pay this slight tribute to her memory."

IN view of the past season's adverse experience, Kohima, in the Naga Hills, is, the Englishman has every reason to believe, doomed as a military station. The choice for a substitute is considered to lie between Thesima, Samaguting, and Wokha. The most feasible plan would be to station the regiment, which cannot be broken up, at Wokha, and to retain Samaguting, as before 1877, with a political and a force of police. Captain Butler, the highest authority on Naga affairs, it may be remembered, strongly advocated Wokha as a station.

THE Statesman of Calcutta having described the proceedings for an alleged libel against the Statesman of London as "a bureaucratic campaign," and hinted that Major Euan Smith's arrival in London was connected with the institution of the prosecution, the Englishman "has been requested to state upon official authority that the Amir-i-Kabir instituted his action without any previous notice of his intention, and without any kind of previous communication on the subject of such proceedings with the Government of India or the Resident at Hyderabad."

RAJA SIR MADAVA ROW, K. C. S. I., the Dewan of Baroda, and formerly Dewan—the Dewan—of Travancore, the Madras Mail writes, was expected in Cochin on the 24th instant on his way to Trevandrum. The present Maharaja of Travancore entertains the liveliest regard for his former "guide, philosopher, and friend." A meeting was held on the 19th instant in the Public Office at Trevandrum, with a view to concert measures to commemorate in a tangible form the great services rendered by Sir Madava Row to Travancore. About Rs. 3,000 were subscribed on the spot.

BY the ship Jumna over 400 returned emigrants arrived at Calcutta from Trinidad, bringing with them drafts for about one lakh and fifty thousand rupees, exclusive of cash and jewellery, and a local paper says the appearance and intelligence of the people speaks volumes for their treatment in the colony. "Their appearance, on return to their several homes, cannot fail to exercise a most beneficial influence in favour of emigration amongst their, comparatively speaking, poverty-stricken fellow countrymen, who are known to manifest, as a rule, such a dislike to a voyage across Kala Pani. A healthier or more happy-looking lot of coolies than those of the Jumna have never returned from any of the colonies."

SIR ROBERT SANDEMAN, the Agent to the Governor-General for Biluchistan, passed through Allahabad on the 26th instant, a local paper states, on his way down to Calcutta, whither he has been summoned by the Viceroy to discuss certain matters connected with the Southern Afghanistan frontier question. The recent meeting between Sir Robert Sandeman and Sir Robert Egerton and some of the chief officials of the Punjab Government was for the purpose of settling, among other matters, the course to be pursued in regard to the future management of the tribes on our Dehra Ghazi Khan border.

SIR ASHLEY EDEN has just returned to Calcutta after a short sea trip in the I. G. S. Enterprise. The party on board consisted of Sir Ashley Eden, Mr. E. R. Henry, Private Secretary to the Lieutenant-Governor, and Mrs. Henry; Lieutenant Campbell, Lieutenant Carson, and Dr. Harris of Sir A. Eden's Staff, and Colonel Stanton, R. E. His Honour's principal object in undertaking the trip to the Orissa Coast was to visit False Point, the condition of which port has, during the past few years, caused the Government some anxiety, and to settle definitely on the spot, in company with General Crofton, Captain Dundas Taylor, Mr. Levinge, and Colonel Stanton, the measures to be adopted for strengthening the harbour. From False Point, the Lieutenant-Governor proceeded to Pooree, and thence returned to Calcutta. Want of time prevented him from visiting either Cuttack or Chandbally. The Indian Daily News takes the opportunity to announce that the temporary indisposition from which Sir Ashley Eden had been suffering had completely passed away before he started on this trip. His many friends, and the public generally, will be glad to know that his health was never better than it is at present. This statement will, we trust, effectually dispose of the various rumours that have been in circulation, all based upon the presumption that Sir A. Eden's general health was indifferent."

THE statement regarding arrangements to be made at an early date for the evacuation of Kandahar, which we quoted from the letter of the Pioneer's Calcutta correspondent yesterday, is confirmed in that paper's "semi-official" column, where we read:—"We believe that orders have reached India directing the evacuation of Kandahar, and that arrangements are now being made by the military authorities to withdraw the garrison and the troops on the line of communications. General Wilkinson's movement to Maiwand will enable large supplies of grain and forage to be sent into Kandahar, whence the posts west of the Khojak will be stocked with food for the army on its march towards India. Already the best effect has been produced in the Girishk district by the appearance of our force at Maiwand. Hashim Khan is following the policy he pursued when he fled from Kabul, and writes that he has no enmity against the British, and has always refrained from fighting against our armies. He is probably anxious to get back the 3½ lakhs he left in our hands at Kabul, which sum would make his chance of success a certainty. Governor of Kandahar we cannot. There is a rumour that Ayoub may make formal submission to us, as he is without money and friends, and there is some difficulty in getting small arms for his levies. He has tried unsuccessfully to make arms, and he has only twelve or fifteen hundred sepoys under his orders. His appeal to Persia for a loan has also failed. Probably some arrangement may be made with Ayuob and Hashim Khan regarding Kandahar and Herat."

THE Calcutta Statesman, referring to the charge against its namesake and colleague now pending in London, remarks:—"The committal was very speedily, not to say hastily, decided on by the magistrate, who, in common with several of his brethren, seems to have cordially accepted a recent ruling on the law of criminal libel as relieving him from much responsibility and trouble, and almost compelling him to send a defendant for trial on an audible complaint being made. So far it might seem as if the attacking party had won a move in the game, but though Mr. Knight will not be suspected in India, where his practice and principles as a journalist are known, of shrinking from such a contest, it is by no means clear at present that the committal can hold good. It remains to be seen whether the Central Criminal Court or the Court of Queen's Bench in London will accept a nameless, invisible, and intangible phantom as a prosecutor, on the mere word of a solicitor acting in matters of libel supplied with funds by someone who keeps in the back-ground. It remains to be seen whether, in the course of British justice, a person alleged to have a grievance may avoid bringing his complaint where its truth can be tested and where he must answer for his own actions, and whether he may lend his name, or, as in this case, his title only, in order to serve the sinister purpose of a political partisan.

THE directors of the Madras Gold-Mining Company, who purchased originally a square mile of land in Kolar to commence operations upon for Rs. 5,00,000, and shortly afterwards, as the mining rage developed, sold half of the mile in the London market for £55,000, more recently concluded, without reference to the smaller shareholders in India, a contract by which they disposed of the second half mile to a company, then in process of formation, for £60,000. The proceeds, therefore, of the property purchased by the Madras Company for five lakhs amount to £115,000; and deducting all expenses for commission, liquidation, and the like, the shareholders have made a profit on the concern of something over 50 per cent. on their capital in six months. In India, however, a good deal of dissatisfaction has beeen expressed at the summary way in which the company was wound up by the directors; and many correspondents, in the Madras papers, have been ventilating their grievance in having been deprived of the risks of speculation and put off with a mere 50 per cent. The real key to the soreness that is felt in the matter probably lies in the fact, which is not in the least concealed, that most of the large shareholders who assented to the second sale are also shareholders in the new purchasing company, which may have led the Madras holders to suspect that the closing of their company was merely a ruse to buy them out of the concern. If the transaction, in fact, is not something of this sort, it is not clear why the London shareholders should quit a property they have bought for two-and-a-half lakhs, to join in re-purchasing it at considerably more than double the figure. However, the directors only acted within their powers, and this was evidently felt to be the case at the recent meeting in Madras. Despite a certain amount of grumbling, the chairman's proposals for confirming their action were carried without difficulty; and the liquidation will shortly be completed.

THE BOMBAY MILITARY RELIEF FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The subscribers to the Bombay Relief Fund are entitled to a reply to your correspondent "Les Miserables." There are many good reasons why the Relief Fund has not yet been distributed, but it will be sufficient to mention two. One is, that military operations are still in progress, and that we may anticipate many claims will be made on the fund in addition to those which have already been broughtforward; and the second is, that, owing to the destruction of regimental records, it has been found impossible to prepare a correct list of the next of kin to the killed and wounded. Some of the regiments which suffered most severely at Maiwand are still in the field beyond the frontier, and the necessary information has to be laboriously collected from distant villages in all parts of the country.

The committee are responsible that the fund shall be not merely distributed, but equitably distributed, and it is obvious that they cannot even begin their task till all the subscriptions are paid in, and till it has been ascertained how many persons of each class are entitled to the benefit of the fund.

The joint honorary secretaries, Dr. Weir and Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, have spared neither time nor trouble in procuring the information necessary to distribute the fund which has been so liberally placed at the disposal of the committee, but until correct returns are received from the Military Department we can only relieve a few pressing cases, such as those brought to notice by Colonel Anderson, of the 1st Grenadiers.—I am, &c.,

Jan. 27. I. ASHBURNER,
Chairman of Relief Fund Committee.

BURMAH AND HER NEIGHBOURS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, JAN. 14.

THEEBAW seems likely to get himself into serious trouble ere long. Some months ago, you will remember, sundry of the Shan tribes made a raid into the low-country, and advanced to within fifteen miles of Mandalay itself. After vapouring about, and plundering and burning almost the entire country north of the capital, they retired to their native hills again for a season. Royal troops were despatched with orders to keep a strict watch over the clansmen, and prevent such an insult being put on the peacock flag again. The valiant Ahmoodan accordingly camped out in various strong positions at the foot of the hills, and there remain, fully engaged in repelling incessant attacks of the sturdy hillmen, who come down with sudden swoops, and usually have the best of the fighting. This sort of thing may of course be prolonged indefinitely, for the only way of putting an end to it would be by attacking the Shans in their mountain eyries, and this is a task for which the "ever-victorious" army of Theebaw has not the strength or the courage just at present.

But it is not through these Shans that His Majesty is likely to get into difficulties. There are several tribes on the eastern frontier, the ownership of whose territories has long been a matter of dispute between Siam and Burma. The Siamese themselves Shans, the only real independent Shan power in fact, have recently resolved to maintain their claim by force, and a considerable body of troops is said to have entered the country and hoisted the white elephant flag. The Shan Tsawbwa, the petty chieftains, probably reflecting that they are more likely to have something more resembling independent rule under the Burmese monarchy, or possibly calculating that if there is anything like sustained fighting, they will almost certainly come in for the best part of the plunder, have appealed to Theebaw as their suzerain, to protect them from annexation. His Majesty, thinking, no doubt, that he might have to wait some time for a better opportunity to extend the domains to the limits prophesied for him by the royal astrologers, forthwith issued an Ameindau, and a large force under command of the Yau Mingyee has set out for the eastern frontier. The Siamese are said to have occupied the disputed lands with a force of 5,000 men. However large an army Theebaw may send out, it is not likely to number more than this total when it gets to the front. Burmese armies have a wonderful knack of melting away on the march. The issue is, therefore, very far from being certain. Individually the Burman is a much better man than the Siamese, whom it would not be an exaggeration to call effeminate, and probably there will be very little to choose between them in the matter of armament. The Siamese marines are sturdy little fellows enough, but they have not the physique of the Burmans, and are very far from looking upon fighting as a pleasant pastime, as most Burmese do.

In former days the Burmese had it all their own way in their wars with the Siamese. The great Aloung Payah, after subduing the Irrawaddy delta, soon found a pretext for invading the Siamese territories. He accused them of harbouring runaway malefactors, and affording assistance to the Talines. Our present province of Tenasserim was annexed with only a few hours' fighting at Mergui and the walled town of Tenasserim. The King's triumphant march ended only at the capital to which he was laying siege, when he was seized with a mortal sickness. He immediately broke up his stockades and retreated by forced marches, hoping to reach Moutsho-Bo, the then Burmese capital, to arrange the succession, so that there might be no dispute after his death. He died, however, before he had got beyond the country he had conquered in the low-lands. His son, Tsin Byoo Shin, literally the Lord of the White Elephant, was even more successful, though he had to fight some stubborn battles. He captured Yodia, then the chief city, the king flying to the hills, and appointed a Burman governor of the conquered districts, while the country was sentenced to pay a heavy annual tribute to the Burmese. The governor was soon deposed, but a fresh invasion resulted in nearly the whole Siamese royal family being captured, and the country being reduced to a virtual province of the Kingdom of Ava. The same monarch succeeded in making himself master of the eight Shan States which are giving his degenerate descendant so much trouble. They were taken from the Chinese, who thrice invaded the country in his reign, but were each time driven back with great loss of men and matériel. All these exploits are recounted at great length and with much exaggeration in the Yazawin, the annals of Burma, which every patriotic Burman reads and believes in as fervently as he does in the Noble Eightfold Path. Consequently the notion in Mandalay is not that there will be any difficulty in driving the Siamese out of the territory they claim and have occupied, but that a great part of Siam itself will be overrun and annexed. Theebaw, in the character of a conquering monarch, would be somewhat of a novelty certainly, and might inspire us with alarm for the continued loyalty of our Lower Burma subjects, worked upon as they are constantly with stories of his magnificence, present and to come. The probability, however, is that the great Lord of the Rising Sun will find it difficult to get enough troops to the front to dispossess even the small body of Siamese now holding the Shan lands. There will, probably, be a lot of desultory fighting, ending in the voluntary retirement of the invaders and the restoration of the status quo ante bellum.

But it is not only with the Siamese that Theebaw is likely to embark in war. Hostilities are also reported as imminent on the western frontier. It will be remembered that some months back a body of Burmans made a sudden descent on Munnipur, killing, it was said, as many as three hundred people and plundering and burning an entire village. The Burmese Government at first denied all knowledge of the matter, but afterwards, I believe, announced that the raiders were dacoits, and that efforts would be made to capture and punish them. Nothing, however, was done, and the Raja of Munnipur made great parade of organizing a punitive expedition, which, however, never started. Now a quarrel of some kind has broken out again, the details of which are not known here, but a considerable force has marched from Manadalay for the north-west frontier. Whether they are to attack Munnipur or repel an invasion from that side, or are merely sent to capture the dacoits, does not appear. The talk in the Royal City is, however, entirely of conquest, and the Munnipuris are to be defeated and annexed to the Burmese dominions in the same way as the Siamese are to be served. Curiously enough, the Munnipuris also are said to be of the Shan race, or, at any rate, have largely intermarried with them. The Shans, therefore, may, after all, be the prime cause of the overthrow of Theebaw. A defeat of His Majesty's armies would almost certainly result in a rising in the capital, or, at any rate, in the assassination of Theebaw. The Burmese annals also recount triumphs more than Munnipuris more glorious than those over the Siamese. The same monarch Tsin Byoo Shin, who was so successful in his wars to the east, came off with equal glory against his western neighbours. Aloung Payah had previously overrun the country, and in 1762 the British Government entered into a treaty with the Raja of Munnipur, in which the aid of a contingent of British troops was promised whenever the Raja might find it expedient to attempt the recovery of those portions of his dominions which had been wrested from him by the Burmese. In return, ground for a fort and factory, and various other concessions, were made to us. Six companies of sepoys were actually sent from Chittagong in the following year, but sickness and the heavy rains, and circumstances of a political nature, caused them to be recalled; and this is all recounted in the Yazawin as a triumph for the Burmese arms. Afterwards all relations between our Government and Munnipur seem to have ceased. At any rate, when Tsin Byoo Shin came a couple of years later with a large army, no British aid was afforded, and the Munnipuri forces were annihilated. The Burman monarch put a nominee of his own on the throne, and marched off again with all the spoil he could lay hands on. A detachment of the Burmans even went as far as Cachar, and forced the Raja to pay homage to the Lord of the White Elephant, a royal virgin and "a tree with its roots bound in their native clay" being sent in token of submission.

All these matters are being talked over in Mandalay now, and a most wonderful earth-hunger has been stimulated. The country most coveted is the Siamese territory in the Malay Peninsula. There are several states there, of which the chief towns are Renoung, Kopah, and Tongkah, which would be very easily taken, no doubt, if a Burmese army could get there. But it is a far cry from Mandalay down the east of our Tenasserim Province even to Renoung. These States are rich in tin, but it is the seaboard thereby acquired which is the attraction to the Burmese. The late King Mindone Min was scheming all his life long to get back the port of Bassein from us, and, no doubt, instigated the mad attack on the Bassein treasury in 1868, when a handful of Burmans under one Nga Kyawtha made a wild attempt to wrest the province from us. At present beyond the fact that numbers of troops have been despatched from Mandalay, we really know nothing of what is going on. Very probably the whole matter may end in a few running fights, unless, indeed, either the Siamese or the Munnipuris are in earnest in their resolve to put an end to the border dacoities.

During the week 404 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of the population per annum was 32·76. There were 96 deaths from remittent fever, being 9 less than the previous week, and 49 less than in the same period last year. M's 15th Regiment, was fined in the sum of Rs. 5 by Colonel Britten, the Cantonment Magistrate at Poona, on Wednesday, for voluntarily causing hurt. Captain Le Mottee pleaded provocation, and said that the complainant, Jairam wullud Tookaram, who was a ghorawalla in his service, was very annoying, and would not leave the compound when ordered to do so, upon which he (Captain Le Mottee) gave him one or two light cuts with a cane. The fine was immediately paid.—Deccan Herald.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SCHOOLS IN POONA.—We are glad to know that strenuous efforts are being made to raise the sum required for increased accommodation in the Bishop's High School, and St. Mary's Institution. Mr. H. Macnee, the Head Master of the Bishop's High School, has decided to have penny-readings and theatrical performances in aid of this laudable undertaking, and we are sure that they will be largely patronized. We believe that the sum required is about Rs. 11,000. —Deccan Herald.

ACCIDENTS IN BOMBAY.—There have been a couple of nasty accidents and narrow escapes here lately. One man, a mill engineer, was apparently being run away with round Rotten Row, when his horse made for the iron railing. He bent it nearly double and then turned a somersault over it, and went away apparently unhurt. Luckily the riderless horse attracted attention, and a search for the rider discovered him lying senseless on the turf, or that ought to be turf, where he and his horse had gone head-over-heels. On the other case a solicitor, well-known as anything but a feather-weight, came to grief through the giving way of the front portion of the foot-board of his dog-cart. It sent him head first between what remained of his trap and his horse's tail. Beyond a slight limp, he does not show any signs of being damaged.—Pioneer's Bombay Correspt.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT TO A BICYCLIST.—An eye-witness writes as follows from Warra, January 24th, to the Deccan Herald:—A shocking accident took place this evening to a young bicyclist, who, it is believed, was on his way to Sattara from Poona. While descending the shoulders of Pertabghur, and edging the awful ravine, he appears to have lost all control over his bicycle (a very large steel one), which was going down at a frightful rate. A few seconds after the unfortunate lad was hurled down with his bicycle into the depths of the impenetrable valley. A shudder ran through my veins as I remained automatically surveying this mysterious spectacle. It seemed that I was rooted to the ground as firmly as the trees. Moving forward half unconsciously, I had entered but a yard or two within the confines of this unhallowed-looking region (like a very sepulchre seemed the place, with its ominous calm and damp, deadly chill) when I came across a little wheel, which appeared to have been torn off the bicycle. About 70 yards further down could be seen, in the obscurity of the fast-fading light, the form of a human being, which, on closer inspection proved to be a young man about 18 years, tall, broad shoulders, fair complexion, no hair on his face, light hair on head. The only article on his person that could lead to his identification was a gold ring on his right small finger, with the initials F. M. in old-English letters on a blue-coloured stone. While I write he still remains unconscious, and is, doubtless, in a precarious state. The description of his clothes is a dark peppered suit, with dark blue stockings, and a large white sun-hat.

THE EXTRAORDINARY CONSPIRACY AT KOLHAPUR.

(FROM OUR OWN REPORTER.)

SIXTEENTH DAY, 22ND JANUARY.

TATIA BIN APPA VANAKUDRE, caste Kasar, age 29, occupation dealer in pots, residence Kolhapur, said:—About two months-and-a-half ago I went to a panchayet twice to the house of Rambhut Kadekar. A police investigation was made in his house. The first panchayet at his house took place on the 11th of November last. I was accompanied there by two other panchas, Madhavrao Karmarkar and Chudapa Jirage on the 11th of November. The things that were found there in the search were three swords, one gun, some gunpowder, one flask for powder, one gun-barrel, one letter from Rambhut to Ganoo Gizavanekar, one bullet for gun, one list of things that were to be made of Jagadamba, a piece of paper on which the names of some conspirators were written, one paper written in the Balbodh character, one paper in the Mussulmani character. These things were found on the first panchayet; and on the second, on the 14th of November, were found feathers, the breast-bone of an owl, a human skull, an earthern lamp, lamp-black, gunpowder for two charges, and twenty-four gun-caps. All the articles that we found are now before the court. The letters and papers are true, and they bear my signature. (Recorded as exhibits Nos. 63-64.) Exhibit No. 60 contains the list of things given in charge of Khyru Holar. Rambhut Kadekar was present on both occasions when his house was searched.

Cross-examined.—Rambhut gave caps and powder, but what he said regarding them I cannot remember. I can, as far as I remember, tell from what place the different things were taken. In my presence no inquiry was made about the weapons that were found on the first or second occasion. I cannot remember if Rambhut was asked or not as to whence he got the papers that were in his house. Rambhut was taken to his house from the Fouzdar's Kacheri when his house was under police search. A man named Ganoo was present at the time of the first panchayet; he also was called and brought home by a police peon. Rambhut was under police arrest, but I do not know if Ganoo was or not. I did not leave Rambhut's house during both punchayets for my private business before I signed my name on the two panchanamas. If the fouzdar had made any inquiry in Rambhat's house, I would not have been prevented by any means from knowing what the enquiry was for. The ink in which the name of Appa Balgonda is written is of the same colour as that in which the name of Chudapa Jirage is written. When an inquiry was made as to the handwriting of the papers that were found in his house, Rambhut said that the papers, except the one in the Mussulmani character, were written by himself. It did not seem necessary to write down on the panchanam the fact of Rambhut's admitting that he wrote the papers. I might have gone two or three times besides this for the panchanam. I cannot remember whether Rambhut was not in the other panchas the to record the fact of Rambhut's confessing the papers were in his hand-writing. Important things must be taken down on the panchanam. I have never seen Rambhut write before he signed his name on the panchanam. The reason for twice pasting Rambhut's house was that all the things now before this court were not shown the first time; and on the second day Rambhut showed some other things. He showed all the things to the panchayet on both the occasions.

Mahipati bin Rakhamaji Kavade, caste Koshti, age 30, occupation dealer in cloth, residence Kolhapur, said.—I went once to the house of Khyru Holar. His house as a panch to which I was summoned two or two-and-a-half months ago. I can tell the day on which I went there if the panchanam is shown to me. Two stools were found, one of which had one leg made hollow, in which a letter enclosed in an envelope was found. The packet and the letter are now in the court. Ramjan informed the fouzdar in my presence that Rambhut had given one stool to Khyru Holar, and that the stool contained a letter, and hence I know the letter was in it. The panchayet took place on the 18th November. The letter was taken to the fouzdar at the time of the police search. The letter was sealed, but was opened by the fouzdar in the presence of the panchayet. This letter was to be sent to Chima Sahib Maharaj at Nepaul.

Cross-examined.—The fouzdar asked Khyru to show if there was anything more, but he said there was nothing.

Other evidence was given about the finding of weapons in the houses of the several accused.

SEVENTEENTH DAY, JANUARY 25.

THE approver, Ramjan Wallad Abdul Mahat, Mahomedan, State servant, Kolhapur, said,—I know all the accused except Sheik Allam, Sheik Kureem, and Sheik Abdul. They were all, except Guru Sidh, in the habit of coming to Rambhut's house. I have never seen Bala Sonar, Sheik Allam, and Sheik Ameen at Rambhut's house. Being in straitened circumstances, Rambhut lent me money bit by bit, and whenever I went to return it, when I got my pay, he refused to take it, and this made me see him at intervals. Once I went to Khiru's, and Rambhut some three days after that told me not to go there, as he (Rambhut) had some private business with Khiru. When my wife was very ill I entreated Rambhut to take me to the house of Khiru, but Rambhut declined to do so, saying that he had something to do with Khiru, and so he could not take me there for two or three days longer. I was an intimate friend of Rambhut, and therefore he told me his secrets, thinking I would never divulge them. Khiru did not say anything about his giving a promise to Rambhut. I cannot make out any meaning from the words, "Now the Ram will appear." My memory being refreshed, I can now say that they meant by the above phrase that a prince will be introduced at Kolhapur district, and Rambhut's name will be well known through the length and breadth of India. A week or two after this talk Khiru came to Rambhut's house while I was there, and told us to find some pugadlos for discovering hidden treasures. We then were searching for a casting, but Khiru himself first brought news that

WACHTER & CO. (EPERNAY),
CHAMPAGNE SHIPPERS

TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, AND THE ROYAL FAMILY.

"Amongst the many brands of Champagne, good, bad, and indifferent, it is often rather puzzling to know which to choose, but when a Wine rapidly rises into fame, and is acknowledged by Connoisseurs to be of the highest quality, it may be inferred that but little risk can be run in ordering it. This is the case with the Wine of WACHTER & Co., of Epernay, which has of late been so patronised by Royalty that it may fairly claim to be called Royal Wine."—MORNING POST.

BOMBAY RACES.

CHRONOGRAPH WATCHES FOR RACES.

THE new Pocket CHRONOGRAPH WATCH, INVENTED and MANUFACTURED by Messrs. F. L. & Co., is not only the BEST, but also the CHEAPEST ever offered for sale.

The Watch had a marked success at the Bombay Races in January last, and also at the Secunderabad, Mhow, Meerut, and Calcutta Races, and Gentlemen connected with Racing will be glad to learn that a fine supply is again to hand.

IN GERMAN SILVER CASE	...	Rs. 80
" FINE "	...	" 85
" 18-CARAT GOLD "	...	" 150

Description:—The Watch is middle-size, keyless, patent lever, crystal glass front and back, going 32 hours.

There are two dials, one in front with the hour, minute, and short second hands, the other is on the back of the watch divided in seconds and fractions of a second. Over it runs the long second or chronograph hand This dial is cut out from the centre up to near the seconds, having the whole chronograph mechanism visible to the eye.

On pressing on the winding nut the second hand will start from the fig. 12, on pressing again the hand will stop immediately, on pressing a third time the hand will fly back to the starting point. In a case of false start this peculiarity of the watch is invaluable.

We guarantee the watch to regulate within a few seconds in 24 hours, the difference in time for 5 minutes being therefore only from 0·02 to 0·05 of a second, a result impossible to arrive at with chronographs going only from 15 minutes to 2 hours.
